Hoopeston swimming pool to open Monday at '96 rates

The blue of the Hoopeston swimming pool's water may be matched Monday by the blue of swimmers' bodies, if unseasonably cold temperatures continue.

The pool will open Monday, said Alderman Mike Eckersley, parks committee chairman, at Tuesday's Hoopeston city council meeting.

"The pool's ready to be occupied if you've got the nerve to get in," he said. "It's going to take some warm weather before someone jumps in or their voice is going to change. We're hoping for a lot of sunny weather."

Those purchasing pool passes Monday will receive a 10 percent discount. Prices are the same as last year: $50 for one person, $60 for two people, $75 for three, $90 for four and $100 for five.

Additional people on a season pass are $10 each.

In other business, the council:

❑discussed vandalism at the McFerren Park Civic Center which occurred last weekend.

Eckersley said he plans to schedule a committee meeting to discuss how vandalism there can be curbed.

❑approved a $1,500 perpetual care agreement for the graves of John C. and Minnie McClure.

❑will hold a street/alley committee meeting at 6 p. m. May 28 to coordinate downtown sidewalk and street repairs. Downtown merchants are encouraged to attend.

❑learned the new mower for the cemetery department is expected this week

Briefly

Street repair ordinance set

ROSSVILLE—Trustees approved 5-1 a $68,000 Motor Fuel Tax amendment for street repairs, maintenance and installing handicapped ramps along Chicago Street.

Between $32,000 and $37,000 of village funds are earmarked for the 26 ramps. The Illinois Department of Transportation is expected to pay half the cost.

The work is expected to be done this summer, if the state approves it, said trustee Richard Kiser, street/alley committee chairman.

Trustee William Galloway voted against the amendment.

In other action, the board:

❑reappointed Cathy Brooks to the village zoning board of appeals. Brooks' term expires May 1, 2001.

❑approved Heather Walsh as an auxiliary police officer effective July 9.

❑learned the village will apply for a grant to upgrade the water system, eliminating a rust problem.

Watch those clippings

Residents are asked to mow lawns away from curbs so clippings do not clog city sewers.

Auxiliary officers needed

Hoopeston Auxiliary Police are now accepting applications for auxiliary officers. Applications may be picked up at the Hoopeston Police Department.

Applicants must be at least 21 years old and must have a Hoopeston address.

Rossville clean-up days

Clean up days in Rossville will be May 29-31. Items that will not be picked up include toxic waste, landscape waste, lumber, paint and oil. Officials ask that all metal be separated.

Police News

Two 14-year-old boys and a 15-year-old boy were arrested at 7:02 p.m. Monday, charged with criminal damage to property (over), burglary, unlawful use of weapons and trespassing.

Police said a citizen reported a boy throwing bricks through a window at 307 S. Second Ave. Police arrested the boy, who implicated the others.

Juvenile petitions have been requested on all three.
